

meet the AUTHOR

Summer Butler is an author, speaker, and Bible study leader. She walks with women, couples, and teens through the struggles of blended family life. Called to connect others to Christ, Summer has sparked blended family communities across the US encouraging members to look up to God for answers instead of out to the world for approval.

Summer is author of BLENDED: Aligning the Hierarchy of Heart + Home. Born out of personal experiences, God given topics, and an individual walk through fire, BLENDED tackles real life challenges using specific direction from the Bible.

Summer and her husband Andy have been married for eleven years and live in McKinney, TX with a teen and together son while the oldest is off serving our country in the USMC. (Ooh-rah!)
